

START WEAVING, KEEP WEAVING, WEAVE BETTER WEAVE FOR FUN

Otherwise known as Weaving Bootcamp

Instructor: Adriane Nicolaisen

Dates: Mondays and Wednesdays January 4 thru February 27

Time: 6 pm to 9 pm

Tuition: $350 * (Scholarships Available)

Materials Fee: About $25 for beginners

Where: PTArts Weaving Classroom, 450 Alger St, Fort Bragg CA

Beginning weavers:

Will receive instruction in the basics of how to weave on a 4 harness floor loom including planning a project, dressing the loom, the mechanics of weaving, information about yarns and fibers and much more.

Intermediate weavers:

Learn work more efficiently and to manipulate the elements of design that go into making a unique woven cloth.

Experienced weavers:

Refresh and reinforce basic skills as well as being able to work on a specific project.

All Students enrolled in this class will have access to the weaving studio most days and times except for Thursdays when the calligraphers meet or other special events.

To register and reserve your place, pay your deposit or full amount by clicking the Paypal button. Your completed deposit/payment registers you in the class. Your paypal receipt is your registration confirmation.

A non-refundable deposit of $50 is required when you register to assure your place in the class. Due by December 30 or by arrangement with Lolli or Adriane

1/2 tuition work study scholarships are available after classes have met their minimum enrollment.

These are available once a year per PTArts member. Contact Lolli Jacobsen to apply.

Materials fee paid to Adriane in class $30.

About Adriane Nicolaisen: As a professional hand weaver for over 25 years, I wove hundreds of yards of fabric, made hundreds of garments and sold my work in galleries and boutiques across the country. In 2006 I graduated with a Masters in Textile Design from Philadelphia University College of Textiles and Science (now Jefferson U.) My degree is based in having a high degree of technical training in addition to a set of design skills based on Bauhaus teachings.